

John Adam & I enjoying a moment of peace

Saturday was a busy day. I prepared reports and took care of many administrative chores, tedious but necessary. Mid-morning Bob returns from the airport with the team from Weaverville. Johnny, Dan, Shan, Nikki And Stephen. Dan & Shan have their own DEEP ministry.

They hardly had time to eat and settle in before Bonnie had them working with a Bible club, "Seedlings". After lunch and a short rest they are back at it again with more Bible clubs, they loved it. The need is huge and the kids are many, the Lord is present, all the right ingredients to fill a missionaries heart.

Sunday; the usual here at Seed Ministry is visitors are divided up and farmed out to numerous churches for preaching assignments. The blessings flow when we step out of our comfort zones and fully depend on God. Then once we get back and share how God moved in each service, we applaud God for letting us be part of His plan. My service was marked by a goofy pigeon that attends every service. I'm going to put his video on FaceBook.

Monday morning we take the 5-6 mile, 45 min drive to our Conference host church. 20 men show up to find out what the training is all about. Worthy of noting is that we have all men this time, yahoo. No crying, nursing, babies and all that come with that.

I'm thankful for technology. I bought a wireless modem for my laptop so now I can sit here and watch goats, cows, kids and chickens milling around just outside the door [and sometimes inside] and be online at the same time. Now I wish I could find a breeze as sweat roles off.

My evenings are spent recording the translations of Lynne O'Quinn book, "Sharing Jesus With Children Around the World. Here is an exert from that translation; "Yisa yɛla yɛli ti Bihi dunia ŋɔ ni zaa." This is just the title. Now don't be confused I didn't know how to spell God in Dagbani until John Adam and Peter showed me how.

Thanks for your prayers and encouragement. don
